

IOSH Leading Safely

Who should attend?

- IOSH Leading Safely is for directors and senior managers of any organisation, large or small.
- No prior knowledge is required to attend, and the atmosphere will be open and friendly as delegates with a great deal in common share their experiences.

Course content

- This engaging and interactive course covers the legal, moral and financial reasons for getting safety right as a part of successful business management.
- We explore some legal essentials, including both criminal and civil law responsibilities; covering negligence, the Health and Safety at Work Act and Corporate Manslaughter legislation.
- We examine the importance of leadership and how it influences the culture of your company
- We look at reputation and culture and how people influence each other
- We examine the structure and content of safety management systems,
- We consider ways of improving safety at each of our workplaces
- For a full course programme – please see the next page

Assessing learning outcomes

- There is no exam as such at the end of this course, instead we do something rather more valuable...
- Each delegate must produce 3 realistic, tangible safety goals to take back to their business.

Course duration

- 5-6 hours

Refresher training

- Certification should be renewed after 5 years

Please bring

- Just yourself, we will provide everything you need on the day

Publication(s)

- Delegates will be given access to the IOSH Leading Safely app

Visit www.hcssafety.co.uk for dates and prices

Course programme guide

Module 1

- Introductions
- Moral and financial consequences of good (and poor) safety management
- Key legal concepts: criminal and civil law, duty of care, the neighbour principle, negligence

Module 2

- Your legal responsibilities as an employer
- The Health & Safety at Work Act
- Corporate manslaughter legislation

Module 3

- What is leadership and why is it important?
- Overview of safety management systems - plan/ do/ check/ act
- Policy and planning
- Risk profiling
- Improving health & safety culture
- Measuring performance
- The importance of auditing

Module 4

- 3 commitments for the future - your roadmap to safety success

