

For Business.
Law. As it should be.

TRETHOWANS

Your business is unique – and so is our advice. Which is why, before we begin to think about answers, we will get to know your vision, challenges and goals.

Whether you are local, national or international, starting out or selling up, our team will take time to understand what makes you tick. We provide clear, practical advice that cuts to the chase.

We are proud to work with major financial institutions and household names, but equally inspired by new start-ups and entrepreneurs. With a team of over 250 people based in Southampton, Bournemouth, Salisbury, Poole and Winchester, we have expertise in most fields.

The quality of legal advice from our solicitor has been outstanding and client interaction has been consistently very strong.

Agricultural and Rural Property

If you are a rural business, property or land owner, there are numerous legal complexities to consider – from conveyancing to tenancies, trusts to sporting rights. We are here to take the load, resolving the issues, so you can get on with life.

Our team specialises in all rural affairs, whether it is the sale or purchase of farms, estates, country houses, estate planning and farming infrastructure, or the related needs of your family or business. We will roll up our sleeves and get on with the job in hand, always working swiftly, diligently and professionally towards the outcome you want.

Banking and Finance

Collaborative, commercially-focused, cost effective and well versed in the complexities of this fast-moving sector. Our banking and finance team offers expert advice to both financial institutions and those looking to raise funds.

We are genuine experts in banking and finance law, holding membership of the Loan Market Association and sitting on advisory panels of most major UK banks. We also act for a wide range of corporate borrower clients. What's more, should you need broader expertise, we regularly collaborate with other lawyers in the firm to provide a cross-disciplinary service.

Charities and Not-For-Profit

Charities need legal assistance in the same way as all businesses, but it makes a difference if that legal advice can come from experienced and knowledgeable lawyers who understand the charity sector and its unique differences and benefits.

Our charity lawyers have a strong track record and wealth of experience in assisting charities and not-for-profit organisations on a wide range of matters including governance, regulation, risk management, constitutional and operational matters.

The attention to detail of the team at Trethowans is second to none. We are constantly impressed with their commitment, care, and commerciality.

Commercial Contracts

Contracts are the glue that holds business relationships together. Which is why we work hand-in-hand with our clients to make sure their affairs are legally robust, commercially focused and aligned with their ambitions.

We provide advice on all types of commercial contracts – for local and international businesses, start-ups and fully listed companies. Our expertise spans service agreements, terms and conditions, supply chain contracts, joint ventures, e-commerce agreements, outsourcing, sponsorship, agency, distribution and franchise agreements.

Commercial Property

Enterprising and practical. Proactive and professional. Whether it's operating at regional or national level, our team has an enviable reputation for providing answers and solving problems.

At the heart of our approach is a belief in building longterm client relationships. We know that we are only as good as our last project, so we are always on the lookout for ways to go further and make a difference. We never take our clients for granted.

As one of the region's largest commercial property teams we are able to work more flexibly – allocating our work to make sure we are giving you high-quality advice at a competitive fee. We focus on your situation, your timescale and your goals.

Corporate

There's a difference between listening and understanding. And a gulf between options and guidance. Which is why our corporate team builds close, long-lasting relationships – so we can 'get it', then get you where you want to be.

Our highly regarded lawyers practise across diverse areas and sectors. We work with individuals and SMEs, as well as major financial institutions and household brands. Our services span succession planning and refinancing, group reorganisations, shareholder agreements, joint ventures, and mergers and acquisitions transactions.

Always looking to make suggestion on how we can improve our internal processes and documentation to strengthen any future claims.

Commercial Debt Recovery

Cash is king for businesses of all sizes. Which is why having an effective credit control process – with a strong, efficient legal team on your side – is vital for your success.

Our commercial debt recovery team works with a broad range of businesses from across the UK and overseas to track down and recover unpaid invoices and other debts. We use technology to provide cost-effective services, making us well placed to assist with bulk debt recovery, as well as one-off instructions. What's more, because many in our team are 100% dedicated to debt recovery, our clients benefit from a fast and highly efficient service.

If required, we also have the support of our colleagues in the dispute resolution team. For us, no claim is too big or complex.

Data Protection

Individuals' data is central to the success of many businesses. Used correctly such data can be a crucial asset, however, comprehensive data protection laws including the UK General Data Protection Law (UK GDPR) mean that individuals' data must be collected and used by businesses with care. Our data protection law specialists advise on all aspects of data protection law and compliance and they can help you make sure your business' use of personal data is legally sound.

Dispute Resolution

Disputes are part of life – and business. But with the right approach, the majority of conflicts can be resolved without lengthy or costly court involvement. Where resolution isn't possible, we will work with strength and tenacity to help you achieve your goals.

Our team brings a wealth of experience across a range of practice areas including commercial disputes, property litigation, professional negligence, construction disputes and intellectual property disputes. Just as importantly, we understand that disputes can be stressful, frustrating and worrying. So we do all we can to bring things to a conclusion as quickly (and smoothly) as possible.

Trethowans is excellent and very responsive. It provides satisfactory answers and its legal advice is very sound and supportive.

Employment

Pairing clear, pragmatic advice with a down-to-earth, get-straight-to-the-point approach, our team has huge experience in all areas of employment law – from thorny employee issues, workplace disputes and grievances to employment tribunal claims. We also provide practical guidance on TUPE, outsourcing and mergers and acquisitions to get your business in the right place.

It is vital that we get to know your organisation, its challenges, its key personalities and your overall business needs. We then offer informed advice tailored to your business and your desired outcomes. We never sit on the fence with our views. Instead, we will draw on our experience to give you viable and realistic commercial options.

Trethowans has provided us with an excellent all round service especially with complex, high value or more detailed cases.

Insurance Disputes

Insurance makes the business world go round. Most of the time, it is a confidence-inspiring safety net. But, when the worst happens, it can become the focus of significant disputes – whether involving an insurer, a broker or a business directly.

Our team of specialist insurance lawyers will work with you to resolve the issue in the most cost-effective and commercially astute way possible. This could involve taking action to find an alternative to litigation or, if court action is required, representing you with clarity, strength and conviction.

We have expertise ranging from small claims up to multi-million pound cases and act for major UK and European insurers and brokers, as well as businesses and individuals. We are experienced in all areas of insurance litigation including defending personal injury and other liability claims as well as dealing with complaints before the Financial Ombudsman Service. Whatever you are up against, we will take a practical, responsive, hands-on approach – firmly focused on solving your problem as quickly as possible.

Working with Laura and the Trethowans team has been a great partnership with Hobbycraft. Nothing is too much and our legal matters are dealt with quickly and efficiently. We are proud to be associated with Laura and her team.

Mergers & Acquisitions

We understand the unique challenges and opportunities of mergers and acquisitions: the need to be responsive, proactive and commercial, but also the importance of absolute rigour and attention to detail.

Our team has significant experience in all aspects of M&A, from share and asset acquisitions or disposals to management buyouts. Whatever you're negotiating, we take a collaborative approach, building close relationships with all parties including your shareholders, management teams and other advisers. This ensures your deal progresses smoothly and efficiently, while minimising risks for both buyers and sellers. When there is so much at stake, we will do all we can to take the weight off your shoulders.

Absolutely first class.

Regulatory and Health & Safety

Regulatory compliance is essential, yet complex. We will help make sure you meet all your legal requirements and, if something does go wrong, give you dependable, expert support.

Our in-depth knowledge makes us perfectly placed to take proactive action, safeguarding your business, enhancing its value and protecting your reputation. Where needed, we can draw on other Trethowans' teams to offer a complete commercial service.

Should the worst happen – and occasionally it does – the consequences can be severe including criminal convictions, hefty fines, imprisonment and adverse publicity. So we can support you throughout any criminal investigation, media coverage and court proceedings. Whatever happens, we will always give you clear, robust advice you can trust.

We offer specialist advice that spans health and safety, fire safety, data protection, environmental, bribery, food safety, animal welfare and consumer protection.

Hard working, dynamic, pragmatic and commercial and a wide knowledge of the subject.

Restructuring and Insolvency

Complex, highly sensitive and often intensely timepressured, business restructuring and insolvency brings its own unique problems and solutions. Which is why specialist advice is so important.

Our team of solicitors has amassed a wealth of experience covering complex restructuring and bankruptcy work including the restructuring of professional partnerships and businesses. We act for banks, corporate debtors, company directors and insolvency practitioners, as well as individuals.

Because every client is different, we focus on your specific challenges and opportunities – minimising risk, limiting damage and protecting your interests.

I am super impressed. Trethowans are effective, and their quality is what you expect from a large City firm. I wish I had contacted them ten years ago.
